Balmer Joins National Insurance Partners as Benefit Analyst

NIP Adds Benefit Analyst to its San Antonio Team

April 1, 2008

San Antonio, Texas ~ William E. Harrison Jr., President of National Insurance Partners, Inc. ("NIP"), announces the joining of Holly Balmer as Benefit Analyst to the San Antonio team. Balmer's responsibilities will revolve around her extensive experience in employee benefits and group life insurance. She has provided expertise to numerous clients from a variety of industry classes including retail, manufacturing, service, public entity, and construction in her five plus years in insurance. "Holly brings an unparalleled level of enthusiasm and innovation to her clients," adds Harrison. "Her innate leadership skills, strong client focus, and positive team-oriented approach have made her a much respected contributor in the benefits arena and an even more respected professional in the insurance marketplace."

Prior to joining NIP, Balmer was associated with one of the largest independent insurance agencies in South Texas, Coleman Company Insurance. While at Coleman, Balmer had the opportunity to work with a diverse group of employers and assisted them in developing health insurance options and numerous other employee benefit opportunities.

Balmer will work with insurance carriers to deliver employee benefit solutions to existing NIP clients and prospective new customers. With health insurance benefits continuing to be the largest expense of most business owners, professional advice and access to the best benefit plans in the marketplace is essential, NIP is committed to providing proactive solutions to their clients while helping them deliver quality insurance protection to their employees.
