National Insurance Partners Opens San Antonio Office

Firm adds Director of Service to San Antonio team

January 23, 2008

Austin, Texas ~ Bill Pollock, Founder and Chairman of National Insurance Partners, announces the opening of its San Antonio office as part of the firm's effort to expand product offerings and presence in the Texas marketplace. "Our expansion into the San Antonio marketplace specifically," adds Pollock, "will improve our presence in South Texas and provide support for our aggressive growth strategy and launch into the insurance market as an independently-owned brokerage firm." The firm's ambitious expansion plans are to reach 15 offices in the U.S. by the end of 2008 executing its unique and strategic plan by acquiring and partnering with successful and high quality property and casualty insurance brokerage firms and by 2010 eventually have more than 100+ locations spread across 50 states.

"Our new addition to NIP, Melinda Garren, brings a wealth of experience that immediately enhances our ability to grow insurance opportunities and meet the needs of a rapidly growing client and partner base," said Bill Harrison Jr., President of NIP. "As Director of Service for the company's San Antonio location, Mrs. Garren will be responsible for servicing the needs of our clients, introducing our culture of service to new relationships and enhancing our insurance carrier partnerships. Prior to joining NIP, Mrs. Garren worked for almost 15 years in the retail insurance space with the majority of those years serving commercial property and casualty clients in various industries for one of the largest independent insurance agencies in San Antonio.
